POSTAL REGULATORY COMMISSION

INQUIRY CONCERNING SERVICE
PERFORMANCE MEASUREMENT DATA

Docket No. PI2016-1

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO SUBMIT POSTAL SERVICE RESPONSES
TO CHAIRMAN'S INFORMATION REQUEST NO. 3
(June 6, 2016)

On May 26, 2016, the Postal Regulatory Commission (Commission) docketed Chairman's Information Request (CHIR) No. 3 seeking additional clarification on the Postal Service's Responses to CHIR Nos. 1 and 2.¹ The Commission initiated this docket to invite public comments on potential issues related to the quality and completeness of service performance data measured by the Postal Service.²

The United States Postal Service (Postal Service) respectfully requests an extension of time of four business days, until Thursday, June 9, 2016, to submit its responses to the Information Request. The Postal Service inadvertently overlooked the Commission's May 26 filing of CHIR No. 3 until this past Friday, June 3, the due date for filing a response. The Postal Service has since made concerted efforts to promptly provide thorough and accurate responses. The requested extension of time will facilitate the necessary input from key stakeholders and will allow for sufficient time for internal review.

The Postal Service appreciates the Commission's consideration and asserts that an extension of time will not unduly prejudice any parties.

² Notice Establishing Docket Concerning Service Performance Measurement Data, Docket No. PI2016-1, at 1 (October 29, 2015).

Respectfully submitted,

UNITED STATES POSTAL SERVICE
